

I am against one company or individual owning more than one radio and television stations. In my opinion, it allows that station's viewpoint to be perceived as "right" and other viewpoints as "wrong". An example of this is the proliferation of talk radio hosts who are right wing supporters and the relative lack of talk show hosts who have other opinions, such as from the left. In my city of Santa Cruz, the population was 90% against the war in Iraq. BUT ALL THE TALK RADIO SHOWS I GET IN REPRESENTED THE OTHER, PRO WAR VIEW. In my opinion, this is wrong
